

Gerd Amtstätter

Degree in law from University of Munich/Germany.

Professional Career

1971- 1975: Member of the executive committee of a medium-sized company

1975-1998: Government of the Free State of Bavaria, Germany, last as assistant secretary of state (Ministrialdirektor) at the Ministry of Finance

Since 1998: Chief Representative (Generalbevollmächtigter) of the von Finck'sche Hauptverwaltung

Further activities

Member of the management boards of Nymphenburg Immobilien AG and Amira Verwaltungs AG, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Custodia Holding AG and Staatl. Mineralbrunnen AG Bad Brückenau, and member of the Board of Directors Sektkellerei J. Oppmann AG and FidesSecur Versicherungsmakler GmbH.

Gerd Amtstätter holds a law degree from the University of Munich. From 1971 until 1975, he was member of the executive board of a mid-sized company. 1975-1998 he worked with the government of the state of Bavaria (Germany, at the end as an assistant secretary of state (Ministrialdirektor) in the Ministry of Finance. Since 1998, he is the chief representative (Generalbevollmächtigter) of the von Finck'schen Hauptverwaltung, member of the management boards of Nymphenburg Immobilien AG and of the Amira Verwaltungs AG, Chairman of the Boards of Directors of Custodia Holding AG and of Staatl. Mineralbrunnen AG Bad Brückenau, and a member of the Board of Directors of Sektkellerei J. Oppmann AG and of FidesSecur Versicherungsmakler GmbH.