

Thomas Limberger

Degree from the Institut Supérieur de Gestion (Paris); MBA in Finance & Strategic Management of University of New York, USA.

Professional career

1995–2001: Fresenius AG and Fresenius Medical AG: different management functions

2001–2005: General Electric Deutschland, Austria and Switzerland: CEO and National Executive

2005–2007: OC Oerlikon AG, Pfäffikon, Switzerland: CEO and Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors

Further activities

Member of the Board of Directors of Mövenpick Hotels & Resorts, Glattbrugg, Switzerland and of iQ Power AG, Baar, Switzerland and member of the supervisory board of SGS (Société Générale de Surveillance), Genf, Switzerland.

Thomas Limberger is President and Chief Executive Officer of the Von Roll Group, a company that is the recognized market leader in the fields of insulation products and systems for the power generation and electrical machinery industry as well as for high-tech composite materials.

From 2005 to 2007 Mr. Limberger has served as Vice Chairman and CEO of OC Oerlikon AG, leading a successful restructuring effort of a Swiss multinational corporation. Under his leadership the company turned from -378m CHF in Net Loss to +378m CHF in Net Profit just in two years with a respectable growth in share price. In the beginning of 2007 OC Oerlikon AG won the EUROSTOXX 500 Award for the best performing stock in Europe.

From 2001 to 2005 Mr. Limberger was Chief Executive Officer and National Executive of General Electric Company (GE) for Germany, Austria and Switzerland. He represented the regional organization of GE for both industrial as well as capital businesses.

From 1995 to 2001 Mr. Limberger worked for Fresenius AG as well as for Fresenius Medical Care AG, holding various management positions. Mr. Limberger started his professional career at Fresenius AG in the corporate finance department.

Currently he is member of the Board of Directors of Mövenpick Hotels & Resorts, Glattbrugg/ Switzerland as well as for IQPower AG, Baar/ Switzerland and member of the supervisory board of SGS (Société Générale de Surveillance), Genf, Switzerland.